FEDEVAL (Federacion Departmental de Vendedores Ambulantes de Lima), Peru

Jiron Horacio Arteaga, no 1392 E, Jesus Maria, Lima, Perú, Tel. (959) 64792 Fax. (959) 4315412 e-mail: streetnetfedeval@hotmail.com

FEDEVAL was formed in 1979.

Membership: Street and market vendor associations in Lima. Among the grassroots federations which belong to FEDEVAL are FEDITAR, a district federation of street vendor workers in Rimac, FEDITAS and the District Federation of Street Vendor Workers of San Martin de Porras. Represents street vendor associations of the Lima Metro. It affiliated to Central Unitaria (CUT) in 2000. Number of Members - 10 202.

Objectives:

- Promotes modernization and formalisation of street trade, and creation of selfmanaged markets;
- Organisation and representation of street vendors, and improvement of their working conditions;
- Development of enterprises for informal traders.

Office bearers: Secretary General - Manuel Sulca; Vice - Secretary General - Marcelino Flores Ciriaco; Organising Secretary - Segundo Albites Lezcano; Sec of Defence - Jonás Montalván Bendezu.